REISA Elects 2013 President-Elect and Officers

January 18, 2013—Indianapolis, IN—At its first meeting of the year, REISA's Board of Directors elected its 2013 officers. Mark Kosanke will serve as the 2013 President-Elect.

Kosanke will serve as President-Elect through December 2013 and begin a one-year term as President in January 2014. He is currently the Due Diligence Officer of Concorde Investment Services and a principal at Concorde Financial Group where he is involved in all phases of strategic tax planning, portfolio design and private placement due diligence. Prior to Concorde, Kosanke was at the Detroit, Mich., office of Price Waterhouse & Co. and concentrated on auditing and real estate acquisitions and development.

Michael Weil of American Realty Capital is currently serving as the 2013 REISA President. The other REISA officers elected were: Tom Voekler of Kaplan Voekler Cunningham & Frank as Vice President; Mike Bendix of DFIG Investments as Secretary; and Tony Chereso of FactRight as Treasurer. REISA's 2012 President Daniel Oschin of KBR Capital Partners will remain on the Board as Immediate Past President.

REISA's 2013 officers join the other remaining Board of Directors: Dr. Randy Anderson, Bluerock Capital Markets; Peter Blum, Ladenburg Thalmann & Co.; Deborah Froling, Arent Fox; Hollis Greenlaw, United Development Funding; DeVonna Murrin, Silber Bennett Financial; Shim Plotkin, Plotkin Financial; Darryl Steinhouse, DLA Piper; Brad Updike, Mick & Associates; and Bill Winn, Passco Companies.
